NIHR EMERGENCY CARE INCUBATOR INTERACTIVE SYMPOSIUM

Shaping your future in Emergency Care Research

23rd-24th June 2022
Bristol

The NIHR Emergency Care Incubator invites emerging and aspiring researchers from all professions and disciplines in Emergency Care to join us in Bristol for a two-day symposium led by an experienced Faculty of senior and established researchers. Small group workshops and interactive events will focus on developing core research skills including project development, grant-writing, patient and public involvement, presentation and knowledge exchange. Learn from specialty leaders in a friendly and supportive environment that includes a social programme and networking opportunities.

Cost for 2 days: £120

Cost for 1 day: £80
